Theatre Wesleyan presents “Anton In Show Business”

FORT WORTH, Nov. 7 – Texas Wesleyan University’s Theatre Wesleyan presents “Anton In Show Business,” a comedy written by Jane Martin and directed by Connie Whitt-Lambert, chair of the theatre department at Wesleyan. Performance dates and times include Nov. 13-15 and Nov. 20-22 at 7:30 p.m., with a matinee showing Nov. 16 at 2 p.m. in the Thad Smotherman Theatre located inside the Law Sone Fine Arts Center at 1205 Binkley. General admission tickets are $8, and student tickets are $4. The box office, located in the lobby of the Thad Smotherman Theatre, opens Nov. 11-14 and Nov. 18-21 from 1:30-5 p.m.

“This satiric, quirky comedy is truly an exciting challenge for any group of performers. It features seven women who play fifteen different characters, all of whom are part of an ill-fated San Antonio production of Chekhov’s ‘The Three Sisters.’ This play is full of wild antics and humor that’s reminiscent of ‘Noises Off.’ Among the characters are a porn-star turned theater diva, a dictatorial director, a culturally-challenged business executive and a producer who’s at the end of her emotional rope,” said Whitt-Lambert.
