Texas Wesleyan University presents art student competition and exhibition

FORT WORTH, Feb. 20 – Texas Wesleyan University will host the “Makers’ Marks” art exhibition from Monday, Feb. 24 through Friday, Mar. 14 in the East Room Gallery of the James and Eunice West Library located at 1201 Wesleyan St. The “Makers’ Marks” opening reception will be held on Thursday, Feb. 27 from 5-6 p.m. The exhibition will be open to the public with no cost for admission.

The annual competition and exhibition allows the Wesleyan Department of Art to present its students’ best artworks. The artworks submitted are created in a variety of media including painting, drawing, ceramics, sculpture, photography and computer graphics. An independent judge selects student submissions and determines show awards. This year’s judge will be Colby Parsons-O’Keefe, assistant professor of ceramics at Texas Woman’s University. The gallery is open during library hours. For more information, contact the Texas Wesleyan University Department of Art at 817-531-4973 or visit the Web site at www.txwes.edu.
