

April 22, 2003

Contact: Lisa A. Fellers
Director of Communications
Office: (817) 531-4498
Cell: (817) 874-8683
lfellers@txwes.edu

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ukrainian and Serbian professors to speak at Texas Wesleyan on building democracies and markets in their native countries

FORT WORTH, April 22 – The Texas Wesleyan University School of Business will host an international seminar on building democracy and markets in Ukraine and Serbia on Tuesday, April 29, at 10:50 a.m. in the Carter Conference Room located in the Sid Richardson Center at 1103 S. Collard St. The seminar is open to the public with no cost for admission.

The seminar will focus on key challenges the region's economy will face during the next decade and will include the following representatives from Ukraine and Serbia:

- Dusan Sipovac, Kragujevac, Serbia. Faculty of Law, University of Kragujevac.
- Ljubica Milenkovic, Kragujevac, Serbia. Completed studies at Faculty of Law, University of Kragujevac and currently involved with Education Women Voters Project for a non-governmental organization.
- Natasha Pesic Radosavljevic, Kragujevac, Serbia. City Planning Department, Kragujevac, Serbia.
- Rustam Abrashytov, Kharkiv, Ukraine. Faculty of Post Graduate Education and senior teacher of Economics and Law, Kharkiv State Academy of Municipal Education.
- Oleksandr Bevez, Kharkiv, Ukraine, Project Manager for the Center for Economic Education, Kharkiv State Academy of Municipal Education.
- Olena Panova, Kharkiv, Ukraine. Faculty of Foreign Languages and Teacher of Business English, Kharkiv State Academy of Municipal Education.

-more-

April 22 – Ukrainian and Serbian professors to speak at Wesleyan, page 2.

The Ukrainian and Serbian faculty are visiting Fort Worth thanks to a federal grant that allowed the University of Texas in Arlington to establish international relationships. During their visit to the Wesleyan campus, the guests will attend a reception hosted by the MBA Student Association, take a tour of the main campus and the school of law, and meet with Wesleyan faculty.

During the summer, Rod Erakovich, Texas Wesleyan visiting assistant professor of management, will spend five weeks in Ukraine on a lecture and training tour. For more information, contact Professor Rod Erakovich at 817-531-4849.

###