

Charles Wesley

Charles Wesley Birthday Tour

December 14-23, 2007
(Eight exciting days in England)

This study/tour will include visits to Methodist Heritage sites--including

- Epworth (birthplace of John and Charles Wesley),
- Wesley's Chapel, Aldersgate, Charterhouse, St. Paul's Cathedral, Charles Wesley's grave-site and other historical Methodist sites in London,
- The New Room (Methodism's oldest building), Charles Wesley's home, Hanham Mount (where John Wesley preached outdoors), Pil (where Francis Asbury & other early Methodist preachers sailed to America), the Kingswood site of the Wesley's first school and other historical sites in Bristol,
- Francis Asbury's childhood home in West Bromwich,

- Oxford (where the Wesleys attended university and where John taught, and where their Holy Club got the name "Methodists"),
 - Brecon, Wales (hometown of Sarah Gwynne Wesley, Charles Wesley's wife),
- AND other historic and scenic places, such as
- Stonehenge, Windsor, Hampton Court Palace and many other cathedrals and castles.
 - and many London sites (Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey, Piccadilly Circus, the Tower of London, etc.)

You will have the opportunity to celebrate the birthday of Charles Wesley, perhaps the most outstanding hymn writer in the English language (certainly one of the two). You will be in his birthplace, Epworth, on his birthday and be led by Dr. Jesse Sowell (professor of Religion at Texas Wesleyan University) who has led more than twenty Wesleyan Heritage tours in England over the last twenty-five years. Then you will visit most of the important sites connected with Charles and John Wesley's ministry during the eighteenth century.

Your $1990 includes:

- airfare from Dallas-Fort Worth to England and return
 - ground transportation in the United Kingdom daily between December 15 and 23 using our own minibus or hired coach
 - lodging for eight days in British B&B guesthouses, inns, and hotels (double-occupancy),
 - two meals daily (breakfast and dinner on most days)
 - admittances to historic sites, museums, etc.
 - guides throughout and Wesleyan heritage and history lectures
- (This cost is based on an exchange rate of $2.02 with the British pound sterling and airfare costs as of August 1, 2007)
