

CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION-OF-THE-DAY CONTEST SEPT. 19-23

The Offices of Student Life and Financial Aid are sponsoring a campus contest to test students' constitutional knowledge. A Constitutional Question-of-the-Day Contest will take place Sept. 19-23. It's open to all students and a $250 scholarship will be given away to one winner each day. Professors, please let your students know about this great opportunity. Listed below is the weekly question. They can turn in their official answers to Aaron Whaley in Student Life before 5 p.m. each day.

OFFICIAL DAILY QUESTIONS:

Monday: Were there any members of the Constitutional Convention who never attended any of its meetings?

Tuesday: In what order did the States ratify the Constitution?

Wednesday: What would be the proceeding in case of the impeachment of a Cabinet officer?

Thursday: Which is the longest term of office in the government, aside from judges?

Friday: How many amendments to the Constitution have been repealed?
